

6th Sunday
of Easter

Welcome to all who celebrate the Mass with us today. May God's grace and peace fill us all so that we can serve one another in unity and love.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Venerate the Lord, that is, Christ, in your hearts. Should anyone ask you the reason for this hope of yours, be ever ready to reply, but speak gently and respectfully." It is by showing our love of the Lord through obedience to his commands that we make ourselves ready for the Holy Spirit. It is easy to get wrapped up in the values of the world. It is especially easy when the way of the Lord is a way of self-sacrifice and struggle to seek the world's wisdom first. Good and faithful stewardship of God's many gifts to us is a struggle, but like faith, the struggle becomes easier with practice. We are the best temples of the Spirit when we are the most generous with our gifts. We will never run out of blessings as long as we don't hold on to them too tightly. Give as the Lord has given to you.

This Sunday the readings are: (1) Acts 8: 5-8, 14-17

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

We wish all our mothers a happy and blessed Mother's Day!

From The Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

Happy Mother's Day! Please join me in thanking all mothers for their holy vocation and the gift of life.

Congratulations to our youth who received the Sacrament of Confirmation Saturday! Please join me in support and prayer for them that they will put the grace of the sacrament and the gifts of the Holy Spirit into action in the faithful service of God and His Church. The problem with Confirmation is that we often celebrate it in May when people are graduating.

Confirmation is the opposite of graduation. It is a new beginning of learning the Faith at the next level with new grace and new supernatural gifts.

Please join me in praying for our next parochial vicar. We do not yet know his name, but Archbishop Schnurr will ordain him to the priesthood this coming Saturday, May 20th . I plan to concelebrate the ordination Mass, at the end of which we will hear the assignments of the newly ordained. May he be a faithful servant of Jesus Christ for the sanctification of His people. Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Bedel

A BABY ASKED GOD

A baby asked God, "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow, but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?"

God said, "Your angel will be waiting for you and will take care of you."

The child further inquired, "But tell me, here in heaven I don't have to do anything but sing and smile to be happy."

God said, "Your angel will sing for you and will also smile for you. And you will feel your angel's love and be very happy."

Again the child asked, "And how am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me if I don't know the language?"

God said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak."

"And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?"

God said, "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray."

"Who will protect me?"

God said, "Your angel will defend you even if it means risking its life."

"But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore."

God said, "Your angel will always talk to you about Me and will teach you the way to come back to Me, even though I will always be next to you."

At that moment there was much peace in Heaven, but voices from Earth could be heard and the child hurriedly asked, "God, if I am to leave now, please tell me my angel's name."

God said, "You will simply call her, "Mom."
