ON THE COVER

The Memorial of St. Martin of Tours falls on Nov. 11, Veteran's Day. Martin was a veteran of the Roman Army before becoming a monk and bishop. He is famous for cutting his cloak with his military sword to clothe Jesus disguised as a beggar.

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Beloved in Christ,

Many years ago, I was associated with a small parish in the country. At the time, I remember there were four children in the catechism program (PSR, CCD, PRP) who were of various ages between first and eighth grades. Only one sweet lady stepped up to volunteer as the catechist. But bless her heart, she was not qualified to teach them all at their various grade levels.

I knew those children deserved more. Their education in the Faith should be of infinite value; and it will have eternal consequences. I remember praying they should at least join a nearby parish that had a more robust program with several qualified catechists.

Bacons of Light is an answer to that prayer! Here in the Northeast 3 Family of Parishes, for more than a year, our six parishes have been doing much more than each would have been doing on its own or in previous arrangements. The youth are more active, and opportunities abound for Adult Faith Formation.

Our October count numbers show we are experiencing growth. That must be why I get a sense of fullness in at least one Mass in every one of our parishes. I found the related article from Fr. Martin Fox, at the below link, to be very helpful. It's a lot to type, so click on it if you are reading this digitally, or another option is to Google Martin Fox and Beacons and it should pop up:

<https://resources.catholicaoc.org/uncategorized/news/understanding-beacons-of-light-one-pastors-perspective>

I want to thank you for your prayers, patience and continued support throughout the Beacons of Light process, which seems to be working. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

God Bless,
Fr. Bedel

VETERAN'S DAY

NOVEMBER 11

Thank you to all those who served, and all those family members who supported and sacrificed for that service.

54 YEARS & 54 DAYS

A Catholic Veteran's Story

Story and photos by Jason Schaap, NE3 Coordinator of Communications

It was about saving the babies. So Joe Zink went to the drawer where his old weapon was stored. Remembering one, he found two. The forgotten one was given to him more than a half century prior, in Vietnam.

Joe was 19 when U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War was approaching its peak. The draft was on and his brother-in-law was sure Uncle Sam would come calling. They got to talking, and Joe got to thinking.

Joe hadn't really found his niche in college. His father was a World War II veteran. Maybe, he thought, the military was where God wanted him to be.

When flat feet disqualified his brother-in-law, Joe raised his hand. I'll go, he decided, and marched to a local Army recruiter.

"My dad was Army. He was drafted," Joe said. "When I decided to sign up, it was why I joined the Army. Because dad was there."

Joe scored high on engineering and language portions of the Army's aptitude test. Eager to prove himself, he told the recruiter to give him the job with the longest school available. A 53-week language slot was open, but language didn't interest Joe.

"I got a 36-week course in ADPS repair," the recruiter told him.

"What's that?" Joe asked.

"I don't know," the recruiter replied.

Joe said goodbye to his family in Ohio and headed south for boot camp at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Then it was off to learn how to fix automated data processing systems, more commonly known today as computers.

It was the dawn of the computer age when Joe arrived in Vietnam in June, 1968, long before they became pocket-size parts of everyday life.

What awaited Joe on the other side of the planet were the great-granddaddies of today's smart phones. Behemoth machines that took up entire rooms, guarded by soldiers with loaded and cocked Colt 45s.

More than a half million U.S. troops were in Vietnam when Joe arrived. He was assigned to a joint-service air base near Saigon at the center of operations. The military's top brass were his neighbors in the bunk area.

"We were headquarters MACV," Joe said, speaking acronym (the military's official language to veterans) for Military Assistance Command, Vietnam. "If you were a general in country, you had an office at MACV...we would see generals all the time."

Like the stars on a general's shoulder, the Army was shiny and new for your average Joe midwest-Catholic. He had never been on an airplane before. Never been far from home for long. His family sent him mail often, but the little part of home that made the biggest difference sat on the other side of his air base: The chapel.

"I went to Mass every weekend, every Sunday," Joe said. "In fact, I remember seeing General Creighton Abrams (Commander of all Vietnam operations, 1968-1972) at Mass."

Halfway through his tour, another new experience awaited him. It was his first Christmas away from his family. He and some brothers in Christ, other Catholic soldiers he met at Mass, made the best of it. They checked out a Jeep and headed to the chapel.

“We drove over and attended Midnight Mass,” Joe remembered, “and at the end of Mass they gave us rosaries.”

A note inside the rosary’s case said it had been blessed by the Midnight Mass celebrant, Archbishop Terence Cooke, who later, as Cardinal Cooke, said the funeral Mass for Archbishop Fulton Sheen. There is now an open case for the cardinal’s canonization.

The rosary blessed by a possible-future saint left Vietnam with Joe when his tour ended six months later. It wasn’t his only rosary though. Like Vietnam, put away in a compartment of his past, the rosary went into a drawer, fading into time, but never totally gone.

Joe married in 1975. He built a house where he and his wife, Karen, raised four children and still live today. They attend the same church, St. Luke the Evangelist in Beavercreek, they joined when they built their house in 1978.

It was there, earlier this year, when he and Karen heard the call to a 54-day Novena in response to a proposed amendment to enshrine abortion in Ohio.

“A lot of people didn’t know what that was,” Joe said about supersizing a novena times six (novena comes from the latin word for “nine”).

He and Karen talked about it. We’re in, they decided.

“I’m against abortion and it seemed like there were a lot of people that weren’t,” Joe said. “When this came up, I decided this is something I can do.”

At the heart of a novena is the physical rosary, what St. Padre Pio famously called his “weapon” against evil. Joe’s weapon of choice was the rosary from his first communion. He went to a drawer, pulled it out, then noticed the Vietnam rosary farther back.

“It was the first I’d seen it in a lot of years,” he said.

It had been 54 years since that Christmas Mass in the middle of a war. Joe noticed the cross came off the rosary at some point. It looked like he tried to fix it with a wire, but he didn’t remember that either.

Karen suggested he take it to a jeweler, who warned him the fix was expensive and encouraged him to think about it. Joe took the advice and brought the rosary back home.

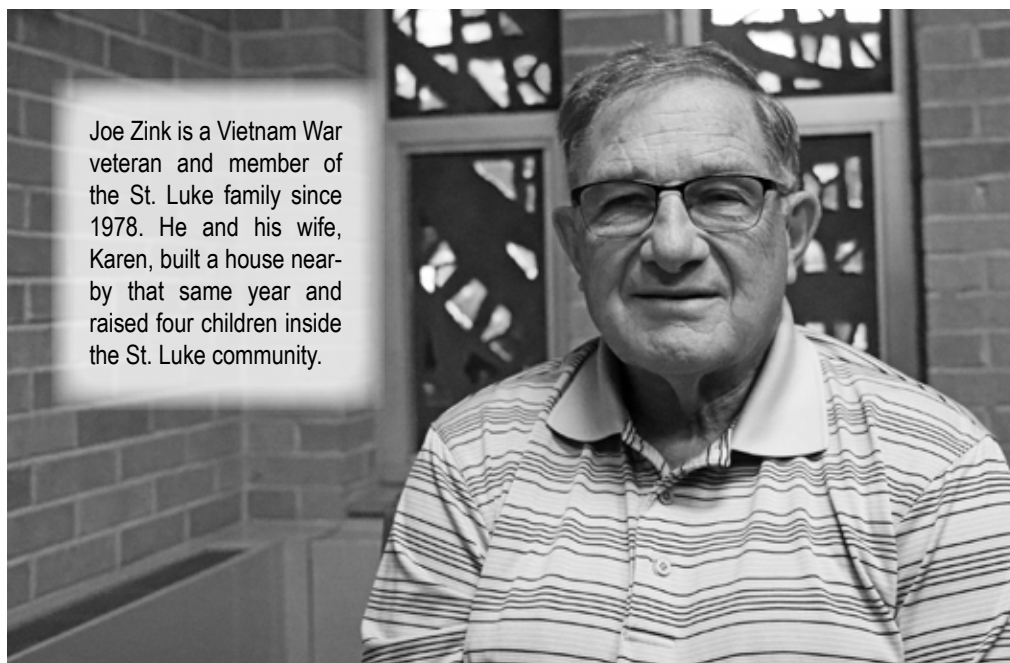

Then, “in the St. Brigid portion of that weekend’s family of bulletins, there was a note telling about a lady who fixes rosaries,” Joe said. “I dropped off my rosary in the box at St. Brigid church. Later I got a call from a lady named Mary who said that my rosary was fixed.”

Joe offered to pay Mary, but she declined. It’s a blessed object, Mary told him.

Thankful, Joe turned to another Mary, who he had not missed praying to since the string of six Rosaries began a month prior.

“I always did it first thing in the morning,” Joe said.

On Nov. 7, Joe Zink finished his first-ever 54-Day Novena.

Joe Zink is a Vietnam War veteran and member of the St. Luke family since 1978. He and his wife, Karen, built a house nearby that same year and raised four children inside the St. Luke community.

The pantry, from which we serve the poor of Fairborn, is providing food to 50-100 families every month. This service has been provided for many years; we sincerely thank you for your continued support for this ministry. By helping the poor, you give thanks to your God for the blessings he has given to you.

The pantry needs include soup, fruit and vegetables in cans, spaghetti sauce, boxed macaroni and cheese, and canned prepared foods, such as baked beans, and ravioli. We can always use toilet paper and cleaning products-laundry and dish soap. Jesus made it clear that we will always have poor persons with us. St Vincent de Paul has lasted for a long time and continues to be active because there is a persistent need. We appreciate your commitment to helping those poor.

May God bless you every one.

THE GIVING TREE IS COMING DECEMBER 2 AND DECEMBER 3-- PLEASE WATCH FOR IT!! Again, this year, D of I will be sponsoring the Giving Tree to collect presents and food for the most needy in the area. There is a quick turn around with how Christmas falls this year. The tree will go up in the gathering space on December 2 with tags attached with wishes and needs for our ‘families.’ Please take a tag or two and follow the instructions for getting the gift and bringing it back for delivery on before Sunday morning, December 17. Please help us help area families have a special Christmas for their children.. Please call Amanda @ 937-620-0701 or Annie @ 937-409-5299 if you have any other questions. Watch the bulletin for more details.

Next Sunday is the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), is the national, anti-poverty campaign of the U.S. bishops. CCHD has been an immeasurable blessing for thousands in our Archdiocese over the years. Just this past year, the agencies funded by CCHD have empowered more than 2,500 low-income people to break the cycle of poverty through such feats as finding jobs, responsibly reentering society after prison, educating youth, and securing decent housing and public services for their communities. “Through the grants we make to well-vetted organizations, CCHD uniquely empowers those in poverty to identify their own needs and to become their own agents of positive change.” Your contribution is greatly appreciated. We will have baskets at all the doors marked CCHD collection at both Masses next weekend. Please note that if you are using a check to make your donation, your check should be made payable to Mary, Help of Christians (with “CCHD” noted on the memo line). We consolidate the donations and write one check for the CCHD or use the envelope provided in your Oct./Nov. envelope pack. Again, thanks so much for your generosity.

The Sacred Heart Ladies Club thanks everyone who supported the 2023 Snowflake Craft Bazaar by volunteering time, baked goods, crafts, theme baskets. We appreciate your efforts to help advertise the bazaar and the support by attending the bazaar. We could not do it without you and a successful bazaar only happens with your participation. Thank you for everything. We will publish the results when available.

The local group, Job Seekers Network, will collect toys for our local children and teens again this year. Please take a card or two from the giving tree, which will have the age of the child and bring the gift back, unwrapped with the card attached by December 14. The presents will be given to the families just before Christmas so their children can have a very special day. Some of the cards will have names of older people in our Sacred Heart Parish who have no one to give them a present. We appreciate whatever you can do to make Christmas memorial for these special people. If you would like to help with this fun project, please call Pat Banaszak at 937-849-9140 and leave a message.

Donaciones para las flores

Hemos comenzado ya a recaudar donaciones de dinero para comprar las flores para adornar el altar para la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Si desean donar por favor hablen con Lorenzo Fondón o con Luz María Perez.

Our Lady of Fatima Pilgrim Virtue Statue will be at St. Joseph, 11 East Second Street, on Tuesday, Nov. 14, noon Mass.

Have you heard the story of Fatima and the great Miracle of the Sun? St. Pope John Paul II said "Fatima is more important now than in 1917." It is for our times and St. Joseph is hosting the world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima as part of a tour of our diocese.

Come and experience the presence of Our Lady of Fatima. Bring to her all your sufferings, for she promised, "My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God." Say "Yes" to Our Lady!

THANKSGIVING

Buscamos muchas cosas en esta vida, pero debemos buscar primero al Señor (Sal) y su sabiduría. Al vivir de esta forma, mantendremos una vigilia por el Señor mientras esperamos su segunda venida en gloria.

Estamos organizando la novena de rosarios para la Virgen de Guadalupe. Este año los rosarios se rezarán en la iglesia, pero igual les damos la oportunidad a las familias que se apunten para un rosario. Así ellos tendrán la oportunidad de ofrecer sus peticiones a Nuestra Madre Santísima para que interceda por sus familias ante Dios. Por favor hablen con Lorenzo o Verónica Fondón para apuntarse para un rosario.

DONATE FOOD IN REVERSE

A reverse Advent calendar is a good way to support people who are struggling to afford the basics for Christmas. Starting Dec. 3, just like a regular Advent calendar, you would add one item to your Christmas bag or box each day. At the end of Advent, the calendar will result in a collection of 24 goods for our church collection.

FAMILY TIME FOR CHRISTMAS TIME

All are invited to Family Night in the St. Paul Undercroft on Friday, Dec. 17 at 6:30 p.m. Activities will include making advent wreaths, prayer chains, and Christmas cards for residents in nursing homes. Pizza, chips, and drinks will be provided.

Please RSVP to Vickie Hoomes at 937-360-4569 or vbhoomes@aol.com to help determine how much food to purchase.

XMAS GIFT ENVELOPES

Gift cards from Tom's Market will be provided by the parish to members of our community who are confined to their homes, live alone, or maybe just need a little extra holiday cheer. Like last year, St. Paul parishioners will deliver the gift cards so neighbors can select food items that best fit their needs. These gifts are made possible by monetary donations put in specially marked envelopes located in the undercroft.

FRIDAY LUNCHEONS

We want to give Father Lee a big thank you for sharing the story about his journey to the priesthood during our Friday Luncheon on Oct. 27. We had a wonderful lunch too, compliments of Pam Greco's vegetarian chili, Vickie Hoomes's cornbread, and apple crisp dessert provided by Yellow Springs Presbyterian Church.

The next Friday Luncheon is scheduled for Jan. 19, with more details to follow later.

Welcome,

Whether you are just passing through, or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Brigid Catholic Church and the NE3 Family of Parishes. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful. People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registering here at St. Brigid is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration also simplifies the process with regard to religious education; sponsoring a sacrament candidate; and planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings, and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed online via our website listed at the top of the next page. If you are a long-time member of St. Brigid, call or email us to make sure we have all your latest contact information. Our goal is to build stronger communication with our community.

CATHOLIC IQ ANSWERS

For page 9 questions:

1. a) False. Christ remains fully present in the consecrated host after Mass and is worthy of devotion and adoration in the tabernacle or the monstrance.

2. b) "The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself" (CCC #1324).
